

TCA WINTER 2012

DAVID NEVINS
PRESIDENT OF ENTERTAINMENT,
SHOWTIME NETWORKS INC.

David Nevins, President of Entertainment of Showtime Networks Inc., is responsible for developing, acquiring and supervising all aspects of programming for all of the Showtime Networks channels. The first project greenlit by Nevins at the network, HOMELAND, premiered to record-breaking ratings in October, and the series now rates as the best performing freshman series in network history. Under his tenure, SHOWTIME has launched six consecutive hit series, with HOUSE OF LIES, HOMELAND, SHAMELESS, THE BORGHIAS, EPISODES and THE BIG C.

Prior to joining SHOWTIME, Nevins was an Emmy[®] Award-winning producer and veteran network and studio programming executive. He served as President of Imagine Television from July 2002 until June 2010, where he oversaw development, production and acted as executive producer on all Imagine Television shows. Under his leadership, Imagine produced the Golden Globe[®]-nominated ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT, LIE TO ME, PARENTHOOD, the new NBC comedy FRIENDS WITH BENEFITS, and the critically acclaimed series FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS, which has received honors from the American Film Institute (AFI) for Television Program of the Year and the prestigious George Foster Peabody Award. Nevins was nominated for an Emmy Award this year as an executive producer for the final season of FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS. He also oversaw production for the Emmy and Golden Globe[®] Award-winning series 24. In addition, Nevins executive produced SHARK, MISS MATCH, SAVED and QUINTUPLETS.

Prior to joining Imagine, Nevins served as Executive Vice President, Programming, at Fox Broadcasting Company, where he oversaw all development and current programming for both comedy and drama series. During his three-year tenure, he developed the Emmy and Golden Globe award-winning drama 24, and was also responsible for the development of THE BERNIE MAC SHOW, BOSTON PUBLIC and ANDY RICHTER CONTROLS THE UNIVERSE.

Previously, Nevins served as Senior Vice President, Primetime Series at NBC, where he was responsible for the development and ongoing creative supervision of such renowned dramas and comedies as ER, THE WEST WING, WILL & GRACE, HOMICIDE: LIFE ON THE STREET and LAW & ORDER: SVU.

Nevins graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from Amherst College in Amherst, Massachusetts. He and his wife, Andrea, live in Los Angeles with their daughter, Clara, and two sons, Charlie and Jesse.
